

Summary of changes to MSP model form:

Page 1:

- Added spouse as a person who can apply.
- Simplified language describing types of Medicaid coverage.
- Added language to clarify that the application can be used by an individual or a married couple.
- Added information about contacting Medicaid agency for Extra Help benefit.
- Added more details about inapplicability of estate recovery.
- Modified 'what you may need to apply' section to simplify language and add documents that may be needed for non-citizens.
- Added statement to 'attach additional pages' as needed.
- Modified 'ways to apply' section.

Page 2:

- Modified section about getting help with Medicare, added phone number to find local SHIP.

Page 3:

- Added additional marital status categories to clarify status.
- Modified citizenship status section to fully align with single streamline application.
- Removed sex from household member section and added language to clarify information needed based on whether they are applying for MSPs.

Page 4:

- Simplified language in income section.

Page 4:

- Simplified real property language.
- Modified life insurance policy section to include all policies with combined value over $1,500.
- Added option to request help from Medicaid agency to find value of life insurance policy.

Page 5:

- Added language authorizing the state Medicaid agency to contact applicants' life insurance company on their behalf.
- Modified appeal rights language.

Page 6:

- Added representative email address.
- Added additional accessibility information.
- Added optional section for race/ethnicity.
- Added optional section for gender/sexual orientation.