

Marketplace Open Enrollment Notice example: Consumers enrolled in 2024 Marketplace coverage who might lose financial help in the future

When do we send this notice?

Consumers enrolled in a Marketplace health plan get a notice like this one in advance of the upcoming annual Open Enrollment Period. Even if they're still eligible for Marketplace coverage, most consumers should take action during Open Enrollment. Marketplace Open Enrollment Notices give consumers important information about:

- The benefits of updating their Marketplace application information.
- Next steps to review 2025 plans and enroll for coverage starting January 1.
- Enrollment and coverage dates.

In this example, the Marketplace sends the notice to individuals currently enrolled in a Marketplace plan who qualify for advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) and income-based cost-sharing reductions (CSRs). These individuals may be at risk of losing financial help in the future for at least one of these reasons:

- They haven't filed their federal income taxes and reconciled their APTC for one tax year.
- They haven't given the Marketplace permission to check data about their income and household size.
- Their income may be too high to get financial help.

What does the notice tell the consumer?

This notice isn't a determination of eligibility. Instead, it informs the consumer about their current status and explains that it's important to update Marketplace application information during Open Enrollment to get accurate eligibility results and enroll in the right coverage for 2025. The notice also tells them they're at risk of losing their financial help in the future. It encourages the consumer to update their Marketplace application right away so they have a better chance of keeping their financial help.

2024 Application ID: #####

Open Enrollment starts November 1: Take action right away to make sure you get financial help with your Marketplace coverage in 2025

It's time to review your Health Insurance Marketplace® coverage and costs for next year. The following people are currently enrolled in Marketplace coverage with financial help:

- [Name 1]

What do I need to know to get ready for Open Enrollment?

- The Marketplace Open Enrollment Period is November 1, 2024 – January 15, 2025. Update your application and enroll in a plan by December 15, 2024 for your plan's coverage to start on January 1, 2025.
- You're currently getting help with the cost of your Marketplace plan each month. But you're at risk of losing this financial help for 2025 for at least one of these reasons:
 1. Our records show that you may not have filed a 2023 federal income tax return or didn't include IRS Form 8962 "Premium Tax Credit (PTC)" to reconcile the premium tax credit for that year. Every year your household has Marketplace coverage and gets the premium tax credit, you must file IRS Form 8962 with your tax return to continue to qualify for financial help. If you haven't filed your 2023 tax return with Form 8962, file it as soon as possible. If you don't, you might still qualify for financial help in 2025, but could lose your financial help in the future. If you filed a tax return for 2023, but didn't include IRS Form 8962, you might need to file an amended federal income tax return (IRS Form 1040X).

2. You haven't given us permission to use your federal tax return information. We need more information about your taxes and income to check if you still qualify for help. You have a better chance of keeping your financial help if you let us use your tax return information in the future. To give us permission to do this, log into your Marketplace account, and select your 2025 application. Update your application and at the end, you can agree to let us use your tax information.

If you don't give us permission to use your tax return information, any financial help you're currently getting will stop on December 31, 2024 and you'll have to pay the full cost of your Marketplace plan and covered services in 2025.

3. Your income may be too high for you to get financial help with your Marketplace costs, even if you qualified for help in the past. Log into your Marketplace account and update your application with your most current income information to find out if you qualify for help.

- Your 2025 Marketplace coverage will start according to the date you select a plan:

If you enroll in a plan:	Coverage starts:
November 1 – December 15	January 1
December 16 – January 15	February 1

What should I do next?

1. Review information about your coverage and costs for 2025. Watch for a letter from your insurance company. They'll contact you by November 1 with important information about your plan.
 - Review your letter to find out your updated plan ID number, and to get details about any changes to the plan (like cost changes to deductibles, copayments, and your monthly premium).
 - Call your health insurance company if you have questions about plan benefits, which providers are in network, or plans available in your area.
 - If your letter says your health insurance company won't offer coverage in your area for 2025, watch for a separate letter from the Marketplace. We'll match you with another health plan from a different insurance company, but you can always pick a different one.
2. Update your Marketplace application. Even a small change in your household information can make a difference in your coverage and costs, so make sure your information is still correct. Log into your Marketplace account (or the account you created through a certified Marketplace enrollment partner website) and follow the steps to update your application for 2025. If you applied with an agent or broker, you can ask them to help you update your application.
 - If you don't want us to automatically re-enroll you for 2025 Marketplace coverage, you can select a button that says, "Stop coverage for 2025" when you log into your account.

- Update your household income so we can make sure you're getting the right amount of financial help. Even if your income hasn't changed, changes in health coverage costs may impact the amount of help you can get. You or someone in your household may also qualify for free or low-cost coverage through Medicaid or the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP) in your state. If you don't update your application by December 15, 2024, we'll use information from the most recent income data sources we have to find out if you qualify for coverage and financial help in 2025. This could mean you won't get the right amount of financial help, or you may owe money when you file your 2025 federal income tax return*. If the income you enter on your application is less than the income you report on your taxes at the end of the year, you may have to pay back some or all of your premium tax credit when you file your taxes.
- If you've filed a federal tax return with IRS Form 8962 for 2023, check the box at the end of your application telling us you reconciled your premium tax credit for past years. If you haven't filed your 2023 tax return with tax Form 8962, file it as soon as possible.
- Agree to let us use your tax information so we can find out how much financial help you might qualify for in future coverage years.
- If your health insurance company won't offer your current Marketplace coverage or something similar for 2025, or won't offer any coverage in your area for 2025, be sure to indicate on your application that you're losing your current coverage on December 31, 2024.

Visit HealthCare.gov/keep-or-change-plan to learn more about making application updates. You can also call the Marketplace Call Center.

3. Review all available plans for 2025, then enroll by December 15 for coverage starting January 1.

- Pick a plan with coverage that best meets your needs.
- When comparing plans, you might see a "Current or Alternate" plan shown at the top of your list. If you don't pick a different plan by December 15, we'll automatically enroll you in that plan for coverage starting January 1.
- Pay your premium (if you have one) to start and keep your 2025 coverage. Contact your health insurance company directly to find out your payment options. Visit HealthCare.gov/complete-your-enrollment to learn more about health insurance premiums.

Do I need to report life changes?

If you have a life change during Open Enrollment or throughout the year (like a move, marriage, or household income change, or if your employer starts offering you health coverage), you must report it to us within 30 days. This helps us:

- Find out if you qualify for a chance to change plans outside of Open Enrollment (called a Special Enrollment Period).
- Calculate the amount of financial help you can get so you won't owe money on your 2025 taxes.
- Find out if you or someone in your household might qualify for free or low-cost coverage through Medicaid or the Children's Health Insurance Program (CHIP).

Visit HealthCare.gov/reporting-changes/which-changes-to-report for a complete list of changes you should report to the Marketplace.

*If you use the premium tax credit to help pay your Marketplace premium, you must file a tax return to report the credit even if you don't usually file taxes.

If you didn't report a change within 30 days, you should still report the change immediately.

Special message for American Indians and Alaska Natives:

If you're a member of a federally recognized Tribe or a shareholder in an Alaska Native Claims Settlement Act Corporation (regional or village), you can enroll in or change plans even outside of the Open Enrollment Period. Visit HealthCare.gov/american-indians-alaska-natives for more details.
